Saint Patrick's Day 1922

I love the hat my father wore
Upon Saint Patrick's Day;
I love each gallant Irish lad
And colleen sweet and gay.
Once more a Nation! Satisfied!
Our colors shall be seen.
And last but not least, I pride
The Wearing of the Green.

The rocky road our fathers trod
Grows smoother to the tread
We feel the mighty hand of God
Upon our martyred dead.
We bless the brave and loyal band
That brought us safely through
To freedom in our native land.
Those Irish hearts so true.

Oh Erin! in this happy day—
So long and fiercely sought—
Our tribute lovingly we pay
To those who bravely fought.
"God save old Ireland" be our prayer.
Her freedom our delight.
The last we'll ever care
Shall be our toast tonight.

It is expected that in this way many persons will enjoy the privileges of the club who could not otherwise be entertained there on account of the limitations which lack of space imposes upon the receptions and other parties given by the club.
